Abstracts

In 2020 and strongly conditioned by the emergence of the pandemic and subsequent restrictions introduced by the local government to control the spread of the virus, the strong performance of channels such as grocery retailers, e-commerce or home improvement and gardening stores was not enough to counter the poor performances recorded by the likes of apparel and footwear specialist retailers or beauty specialists, among others, which were deemed to be non-essential during lockdowns and therefore...

Euromonitor International's Retailing in Portugal report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Non-Store Retailing, Store-Based Retailing.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
