Abstracts

Taiwan's retail industry faced abrupt changes when an outbreak of COVID-19 upended consumers' everyday lives in mid-May 2021 and restrictions were imposed by the government. Retail sales across channels saw completely contrasting performances. Consumers reprioritised what was essential and switched to e-commerce more than ever before. Modern grocery retailers and electronics and appliance specialist retailers saw growth due to the greater demand for home cooking, working from home, home schoolin...
