Abstracts

In Kenya, rice and instant noodle pouches are recording robust volume growth in 2023, driven by consumers prioritising essential groceries amid rising food prices. The rice, pasta and noodles category overall is witnessing double-digit current value growth. Rice, as the largest product by volume sales, is benefitting from the steep price increase in maize meal, a primary ingredient for ugali - a staple local dish. Drought conditions have adversely affected the maize crop, leading to reduced yield...
