Abstracts

In 2023, the rice, pasta and noodles market in Latvia is characterised by stability rather than dynamic growth. The category has faced a significant price shock in 2023, with prices rapidly increasing and impeding potential growth. Consequently, a segment of consumers has shifted towards the economy segment of dried pasta, dominated by the local Dobele brand and various private label options. Amid current geopolitical events and economic uncertainties, Latvians are stocking up on staple foods li...
