Abstracts

Despite the rising concerns about single-use plastic, waste management and boycotts in many countries, rigid plastic packaging continues to see positive growth opportunities in Latin American countries. Attributes such as convenience, practicality, portability and storage efficiency appear to be more relevant to Latin American consumers in the short term, especially as many economies in the region are still struggling to grow after economic and political instability.

Euromonitor International's Rigid Plastic in Latin America global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the packaging market, highlights the effect of emerging geographies, categories and consumer trends on the packaging landscape. It identifies the leading pack types, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the packaging market - be they packaging innovations, consumption growth, category switching, economic/lifestyle influences, legislation or environmental issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
