Abstracts

The off-trade demand for RTD tea in Slovakia suffered from colder than usual weather in 2023, as a cold spring combined with fewer tropical days during summer to negatively impact sales. In addition to this climatic factor, consumers were trying to save money by prioritising essential goods and purchasing fewer non-essential products at the end of the review period. This behaviour was informed by weak purchasing power in a highly inflationary climate, which brought higher interest rates and risi...
