RTDs/high-strength premixes is the smallest category in volume terms within alcoholic drinks in the country, with sales far below those of other categories. These are products that are aimed at very specific consumers, and at expensive average unit prices. Among the different products, the category of spirit-based RTDs leads sales in Uruguay, and it also has the highest level of competition. In contrast, wine-based RTDs is a very small category in volume terms and no major increase in sales is e...
