Abstracts

Rx/reimbursement adult incontinence remained in a slump in Italy in 2023, as the government continues to reduce its spending in the healthcare system. In 2024, public expenditure in hospitals and so-called “Community Health Houses” will be further decreased and, according to plans, this will be compensated by at-home assistance to patients and telemedicine. The aim of “Community Health Houses” is to offer nearby healthcare to residents, thereby ensuring service primarily to the older population,...
