Abstracts

Sanitary protection in Ireland showed a solid performance in 2022, with growth in total volume sales improving marginally from 2021 and most categories registering positive results in this respect. Together with the necessity status of these products, the continued expansion of the female population aged 12-54 ensured overall demand remained stable. Volume sales of product types that are mainly used outside the home – ie tampons, pantyliners and slim/thin/ultra-thin towels with wings – were furt
