Abstracts

Whilst consumers have indeed been returning to foodservice channels, a trend for home-cooking maintains, thus supporting sales in sauces, dips, and condiments – in both value and volume terms. Various sauces and bouillon are popular ingredients in the Philippines, as they are used to quickly and conveniently enhance the flavours of different dishes. Moreso, players in the category are capitalising on these trends to order to boost the image of their brands to be front-of-mind for consumers, with...
