Abstracts

There was a surge in demand for sauces, dips and condiments packaging during 2020, when COVID-19 restrictions saw consumers spending more time at home and preparing and eating more meals and snacks there, providing a significant boost to demand for these products. However, since then, in both 2021 and 2022, packaging unit volumes in sauces, dips and condiments have been declining. This was attributed to shifting consumer preferences towards fresher, home-made, local and/or artisanal options, ris...
