Abstracts

Following a surge in demand at the height of the pandemic due to prolonged home seclusion, demand for sauces, dips and condiments, and therefore associated packaging, started to stabilise in 2021 with further volume declines being recorded in 2022 due to greater mobility outside of the home. Nevertheless, retail volumes in terms of packaging units for this category, including for pickled products, remained above pre-pandemic levels in 2022.

Euromonitor International's Sauces, Dips and Condiments Packaging in Japan report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Condiments, Dips, Other Sauces and Condiments, Pickled Products, Sauces.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
