Abstracts

Sauces, dips and condiments recorded an increase in packaging unit volume sales in 2022, driven by the sustained interest in home cooking generated by the pandemic in Mexico. In 2022, after lockdown restrictions had been lifted and consumers resumed their busy lives, packaged cooking sauces still added a degree of convenience as Mexicans did not need to worry about, or indeed have the time, to make these products from scratch. This trend supported packaging unit volume sales of the major pack ty...
