Abstracts

In a repeat of 2021's weaker performance, the decline in retail unit volumes of sauces, dips, and condiments packaging in 2022 in the Netherlands was due to a stabilising of demand following the stockpiling witnessed in 2020 due to pandemic-related home seclusion. Therefore, greater time spent outside of the home is placing pressure on stronger demand for these products, in addition to shifting consumer preferences and lifestyle changes.

Euromonitor International's Sauces, Dips and Condiments Packaging in Netherlands report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Condiments, Dips, Other Sauces and Condiments, Pickled Products, Sauces.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
