Abstracts

There was a sharp acceleration in the rate of growth in demand for sauces, dips and condiments packaging during 2020, as consumers spent more time at home and prepared and ate more meals and snacks there. This continued in 2021, with the COVID-19 and measures the restrictions introduced to curb its spread still present in this year. In spite of seeing above-average growth for two years, packaging unit volumes in sauces, dips and condiments were still growing in 2022. Cooking ingredients and cond...
