Abstracts

Sauces, dips and condiments packaging volumes saw an exceptional year of growth in 2020, in the first year of the pandemic, when consumers had to cook more meals at home. In 2021, a partial reversal of this trend was seen as the pandemic eased, and volumes turned to decline. This declining trend continued in 2022, as consumers dined more outside of the home, and packaging volumes continued to normalise, although volumes remained well above the pre-pandemic level.
