Abstracts

Sauces, dips and condiments packaging volumes returned to slight growth in 2022, stabilising after a couple of years of pandemic-related disruption. Increases were seen for most categories and pack types. In 2022, PET bottles gained pack type share for sauces, dips and condiments, eating into the share of more significant pack types, such as glass jars. This is because PET bottles are lightweight compared with glass jars, which makes them cost-effective for transportation. Secondly, PET bottles...
