Abstracts

Sauces, dips and condiments are expected to register high current value growth, though volume growth will be much more moderate. Global inflationary pressures due to the war in Ukraine are feeding into higher retail prices and dampening volume demand somewhat. All the same, a rebound in oil prices is benefitting the economy and the continued development of modern grocery retailers is also benefitting this sector, as there is a wider choice available.

Euromonitor International's Sauces, Dips and Condiments in Algeria report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in directly informs our forecasts to 2026, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
