Abstracts

In Egypt, sauces, dips and condiments is set to witness a decline in volume sales, aligned to rising price points that began in Q2 of 2022. Inflation rates were aggressive, at around 30%, due to the price increase in raw material and the heightened cost of production. As a result of price increases, many consumers in Egypt have decreased the frequency that they purchase sauces, dips and condiments. While volume sales are declining, current retail value sales are increasing in line with heightene...
