Abstracts

Record-high inflation has been impacting the unit prices of sauces, dips and condiments in 2022. Some companies have implemented mark-ups of up to 40% on table sauces. However, this category has not only been plagued by inflation, but also by a troubled supply chain. There have been price increases due to the lack of availability of some ingredients, and low crop yields for a variety of spices. The go-to additions for consumers to dress up their meals have seen unit price growth in the double-di...
