Abstracts

Sales of savoury snacks continued growing in most Eastern European countries in 2020 and 2021, in spite of Coronavirus (COVID-19). Even if some on-the-go sales were lost during the pandemic, particularly in 2020, home seclusion has tended to benefit sales of many snack types, including the trend towards larger pack sizes in some countries. While newer categories like tortilla chips will be most dynamic in 2021-2026, potato chips and nuts, seeds and trail mixes will continue to dominate sales.

Euromonitor International's Savoury Snacks in Eastern Europe global briefing provides a comprehensive overview of the Snacks market, providing insight on sales and market potential, retail distribution and company and brand shares.
