Abstracts

Savoury snacks has remained the largest of the main snacks categories in Guatemala by some distance in 2024, and is also poised to be the most dynamic performer among them in retail volume and current value growth terms over the entire year. Buoyant demand has continued to draw in new entrants and stimulate innovation by established producers. Notable launches have included a range of potato chips from the Pro brand, which has previously been best known in the country for its fruit snacks and nu...
