Abstracts

In 2016, Sberbank has kept to its development strategy, which the company introduced in 2013 for the period 2014-2018. The main goal of this development strategy was to save and strengthen its position as a leading and stable financial institution not only in Russia and Eastern Europe, but in other regions and even worldwide. To do this, Sberbank planned to double its net income and assets, optimise its cost saving and keep the return on equity above that of its global competitors. Sberbank also...
