Abstracts

In 2013, Sberbank introduced a new development strategy for 2014-2018. The bank's main goal is to improve its position as a leading and stable financial establishment worldwide. It plans to double net income and assets, optimise cost saving and keep the return on equity above that of the global competitors. Sberbank also put a target to reach strong growth in non-credit earnings. The bank will keep its technological modernisation and integrate all the latest developments into its business.
