Abstracts

On the one hand, self-service cafeterias benefited from their competitive prices in 2023, with consumers being highly price sensitive consumers in face of continuing high inflation. As daily menu prices increased in restaurants, some consumers switched to self-service cafeterias for cheaper menus. On the other hand, independent operators in less busy areas were forced to close or limit their operations due to rising operational costs. Outlet numbers also continued to decline as part of a long-te...
