Self-service cafeterias saw solid current value growth in Austria in 2016, as the reputation of such restaurants and the food they offer increased, and consumers increasingly valued their advantage in terms of convenience. The number of self-service cafeterias remained stable after a strong drop in 2015, when the restaurants associated with the Kika and Leiner furniture stores were changed from self-service cafeterias to full-service restaurants in order to copy the success of furniture retailer...
