Abstracts

While the global economy continues to show signs of recovery, ongoing softness in demand in China and Brazil has helped to create a new strategic environment for foodservice operators with global ambitions. In this new report, Euromonitor International explores the opportunities inherent in a more fragmented global demand environment, as consumers look for new experiences and local operators continue to push the envelope.

Euromonitor International's Shuffling the Deck: Global Consumer Foodservice in 2014 and Beyond global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Consumer Foodservice market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading operators and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the operating environment - be they economic/lifestyle influences, new foodservice concepts, outlet locations, menu innovation or format development. The entire industry is considered, including both chained and independent operators. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and what the criteria for success are.

Product coverage: Consumer Foodservice by Location, Consumer Foodservice by Type.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
