Abstracts

Skin care in Asia Pacific, after declining in 2020, when Coronavirus (COVID-19) first hit the region, was back to recording positive growth in real value terms in 2021. While China continued recording positive growth in both years, Japan and South Korean had seen sharp sales declines in 2020. The latter saw a strong rebound in 2021, but the Japanese recovery was much weaker, with sales still far below their 2019 levels. Asia Pacific skin care will see positive annual growth rates over 2021-2026.

Euromonitor International's Skin Care in Asia Pacific global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces.
