Abstracts

Historically, herbal/traditional products account for the vast majority of sleep aids sold in the Czech Republic. Indeed, until slightly prior to the beginning of the review period, herbal/traditional products accounted for all retail sales of sleep aids in the country. While the retail value share of standard sleep aids is set to remain small in 2023, it has grown, with some fluctuation, over the review period. Herbal/traditional products are often perceived to be gentler and less harmful than...
