Abstracts

While sleep aids is poised to record strong growth in current value sales in 2023, this is mainly due to price hikes amidst high inflation fuelled by the global recovery from COVID-19 and the fallout of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. With inflationary pressures eroding purchasing power and making Hungarians much more cautious in their spending decisions, the category is set to contract in volume terms after having shown consistently positive results in this regard earlier in the review period. Ho...
