Abstracts

The lingering impact of the pandemic, greater exposure to digital screens, and generally fast-paced lifestyles are continuing to affect the local population's ability to relax and sleep, with heightened stress known to be a major factor impacting sleep quality. Therefore, sleep aid brands are increasingly emphasising their various properties in their marketing; in addition to their sleep-inducing effects, they claim to relieve anxiety in many situations that can be encountered in everyday life.

Euromonitor International's Sleep Aids in South Korea report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. Forecasts to 2027 illustrate how the market is set to change.
