Abstracts

As the cost of groceries continued to increase in 2023, small independent grocery stores faced intensified competition from chained outlets. Small local grocers suffer from limited bargaining power and struggle to manage rising operational expenses without passing costs onto consumers. At the same time, leading supermarkets, discounters and hypermarkets extended price freezes, luring cost-conscious consumers and exacerbating challenges for smaller, local grocery outlets. Despite these hurdles, s...

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in France report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
