Abstracts

In 2023, small local grocers maintained dynamic current value growth in India, although outlet numbers stagnated for another year. This channel also continued to dominate value sales within grocery retailers in this year, accounting for three quarters of sales. This channel offers ease of accessibility for daily needs, with consumers often preferring to shop at neighbourhood stores as they are in close proximity to homes in both urban and rural areas. Nevertheless, while small local grocers cont...

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in India report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
