Abstracts

Like convenience stores, small local grocers witnessed a significant upturn in value sales in 2020, as Italian consumers were encouraged to shop locally as much as possible to limit contact with others and minimise the spread of COVID-19. Locality shopping became the priority as consumer movement was heavily restricted. As the threat of COVID-19 lingered and pandemic-related restrictions renewed, consumers increasingly appreciated the specific value provided by small proximity stores.

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in Italy report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
