Abstracts

Small local grocers in New Zealand saw faster retail current value growth in 2023, compared to 2022. However, as with other retail formats, this performance owed much to inflationary pressures exerting upward pressure on grocery unit prices. While fuel costs stabilised following the initial shock caused by Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022, the government's temporary removal of excise duty on petrol ended in July, with increased costs being passed onto consumers. Similar to other retail forma...

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in New Zealand report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
