Abstracts

The performance of small local grocers in Romania in 2023, was negatively impacted by the declining number of outlets across the nation. In addition, the elimination of all COVID-19 restrictions in 2022 propelled travelling and bolstered spending in consumer food service. With consumers' priorities focused on leisure and entertainment post-pandemic, purchases moved to modern retailing, which offers a wider selection of food and non-food. Despite this, retail value growth remained positive in 202...
