Abstracts

There was a further contraction in outlets of small local grocers in Turkey in 2023, as increasing numbers of operators were unable to compete with other formats, in a climate of rising inflation and rising costs. It is extremely difficult for small local grocers to be competitive, as they do not benefit from the economies of scale of other larger grocery retailers. As such, with consumers being highly price sensitive, they continued to shift towards modern grocery retailers, which have much gre...
