Abstracts

Small local grocers was the only grocery retailers channel in Ukraine to contract in current value terms in 2023. While trade picked up from 2022 as the initial shock of the Russian invasion receded, it continued to lose ground to modern formats such as convenience stores and supermarkets. The latter trend is ongoing for several years, but has recently been reinforced first by the pandemic and then by the fact that these types of outlets have been among the worst affected by supply chain disrupt...

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in Ukraine report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
