Abstracts

With volume growth of 3% to 206,000 units and current value growth of 4% to €10 million in 2015, kettles was the best performing category in small kitchen appliances (non-cooking) during the year. This was because kettles are commonly used in the homes of many Italians, which are increasingly being rented to foreigners for holiday homes as a source of second income. Foreign tourists from Asia, the US and Northern Europe are more accustomed to consuming tea than Italians and demand for kettles...
