Abstracts

E-vapour products in China was devastated by a substantial package of industry regulations and policy updates throughout 2022, restricting the production, wholesale, and retail operations of e-cigarette players. The ban on flavoured e-vapour products, other than those with tobacco flavour, according to the new National Standard on Electronic Cigarettes, had the most material impact on the category. Most consumers were accustomed to fruit-flavoured products, and many were hence unwilling to adapt t...
