Abstracts

Although heated tobacco recorded declining sales in both volume and real value (at constant 2022 prices) terms, it managed to register modest growth in current value terms in 2022, which was seen as not too bad a performance given Ukraine was operating under war conditions for most of the year. As a relatively premium category, in which consumers are less price sensitive during a period of rising inflation, heated tobacco is also expected to quickly return to recording strong growth again in all...
