Abstracts

The presence of e-vapour products in Uzbekistan remained negligible at the end of the review period, with only more affluent consumers able to purchase certain e-vapour products through several outlets in the capital of Uzbekistan. However, their extremely high price places them out of reach for most local consumers. The culture in the country is strongly and traditionally linked to the smoking of cigarettes and pipe tobacco.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

COVID-19 impact on tobacco

COVID-19 country impact

Trading up trend noted amongst urban consumers leading to volume share gain and growth for the mid-price band, although demand for illicit trade remains amongst lower-income groups

UZBAT retains dominance of cigarettes in 2019 but continues to slowly lose ground to more dynamic players, especially Philip Morris with its new production facilities

Monetary concerns set to influence demand for economy and illicit cigarettes from 2021, while pipe tobacco will take longer to recover due to health-related concerns over the spread of the virus through hookah pipe sharing
