Abstracts

There is no tradition of smokeless tobacco in Spain. Consumption of this tobacco type is extremely limited and distribution is not as wide as for other tobacco references. Some estancos in the country do not even stock these references. The majority of Spanish smokers have never tried and do not even know about these products. Immigrants are the main consumers of chewing tobacco in Spain, whilst snuff is mainly purchased by tourists or foreigners residing in the country.

Euromonitor International's Smokeless Tobacco in Spain report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
