Abstracts

Vapour products such as e-cigarettes have been present in Ecuador since 2011. E-Cigs Ecuador, which markets the international brand V2Cigs, was the first company to launch such products in the country. The number of vapers is still insignificant if compared with cigarette smokers. It is expected that the number of users of vapour products in Ecuador will increase over the forecast period, as more people seek to reduce their consumption of cigarettes, due to higher awareness of the health issues...
