Abstracts

Belarus has been an outlier in terms of its approach to the pandemic, with no lockdown restrictions in place. Nonetheless the economy has been struggling, largely driven by political unrest, which has been further heightened in 2021 due to an incident in which a plane was halted by the government in May 2021 in order to arrest an opposition activist. As a result, the EU has banned Belarus from its airspace. It is expected that the political turmoil will have negative consequences for the economy...
