Abstracts

The snacks market in Bolivia in 2023 benefited from the growth of impulse purchases in single portion formats, mainly in sugar confectionery, savoury biscuits and impulse ice cream. After COVID-19, consumers resumed their activities outside of the home, and returned to school, university and offices, driving impulse sales in the year. Consumers were eager to socialise after the pandemic, and the return of key events such as carnival and end-of-year parties, as well as greater adherence to special...
