Abstracts

Increased socialising and the return to post-pandemic habits is supporting the snacks category in 2023. Although inflation continues to cut into discretionary incomes and consumers remain price sensitive, most consumers have become accustomed to higher prices. Inflation reached 7.8% in 2022, according to the National Statistics Institute (INEC), the highest level in the past decade. Added to this, a significant percentage of the population is still affected by unemployment stemming from the pand...
