Abstracts

Snacks is set to see an increase in sales in retail current value terms in 2023, mainly due to increases in unit prices across all snacks categories. Although many manufacturers had already implemented price increases in 2022, the costs of raw materials, logistics, and energy continue to rise, and it is becoming inevitable that many manufacturers will raise their prices again in 2023. Several major manufacturers have already announced price increases, with many implementing increases between Feb...
