Abstracts

Snacks in the Netherlands in 2024 is seeing further price hikes following on from the previous year's steep rises. Greater player investment in product development and marketing and promotions is also continuing apace. Growth is largely driven by leading players investing in the development of their main brands, whereas segments in which players are instead focused on price rises are not expanding so much. This is visible in countlines, for example, as well as in other segments within chocolate...
