Abstracts

In 2023, the UK's economy continues to be challenged by strong inflationary pressures. Similar to other food industries, snack manufacturers are having to address multiple shortages in the supply chain, in addition to increasing costs of transportation, energy, labour and raw materials (with the latter fuelled by the war in Ukraine since 2022). Many brands have been facing ingredient availability issues and are struggling to meet consumer demands. Due to the current challenges, SKU rationalisati...
